After-Christmas REDUCTIONS

There is greater significance than ever before to this year's after-Christmas sales. They have been in the process of making for many months, but the recent lowering of price-levels makes these events of greater magnitude than we had cared hope for. After-Christmas prices at this store recognize the recent drop in prices; also they bear the additional discount allowed on many lots of merchandise of small or reduced quantity.

All thru the Store there are splendid opportunities for midwinter shopping: goods of highest character, such as we know our patrons want now, and at prices we believe they want to pay.

These opportunities are so numerous that we shall not attempt to detail them here.
